Dear Parent/Guardian,

My name is Seán Tucker-Clemens, I am currently offering professional and modern guitar (electric, acoustic, bass, ukulele) tuition within your child's school. I began teaching peripatetically whilst in my final year at the Academy of Music and Sound in Exeter. Since graduating in September 2016 with a 2:1 degree classification I have grown my tuition in to a full-time practice now teaching within multiple Devon schools as well as offering private evening lessons in and around Exeter.

If you are interested in signing your child up for lessons please see the details below and get in touch with the following information (name, contact number, email, student age, instrument and preferred lesson duration).

Current 1:1 tuition rates are as follows:

£8.50 per 20 minutes or £12.50 per 30 minutes

Please contact for more info on group sessions.

Fees are paid for in two instalments per term via direct debit. There are 10-12 sessions per term dependent on the school calendar. Link to setup payment is sent out on confirmation lessons are to be taken.

Students are expected to keep up lessons for at least half a term as no refunds will be given. Practice in between sessions is expected, so please encourage regular practice at home. Should at any point your child wish to stop lessons written notice must be provided by the end of the paid half term. If sufficient notice is not provided please be aware that you may still be charged for the following half term.

All business information and Terms and Conditions can be found on my website;

<https://www.seantuckerclermens.com>

or on my Facebook page;

<https://www.facebook.com/stcguitartuition>

Both of these sites are updated frequently so it's good to check back regularly.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards
Seán Tucker-Clemens
