

Landscore Primary School

Summer Term

Friday 25th April 2025

Dear Families,

Welcome back – we all hope you had a brilliant Easter break and took the opportunity to enjoy the glorious weather with family and friends.

Landscore, Ready...

What a sensational start to the term! On Tuesday, Landscore welcomed Zach George – otherwise known as Gladiator Steel – into school. Steel shared a presentation to the whole school where he talked about both his experiences as a Gladiator as well as some of his life story. In particular he shared a very important message about confidence, healthy eating, hydration! The children listened brilliantly and were especially excited to see him

Steel then had the opportunity to visit each and every class, talking with the children and answering their questions, before posing for a class photo! The children listened and responded well and asked some insightful – and hilarious – questions.

I know the children have been talking about his visit all week and many of them have taken his messages to heart. Experiences like these make memories that will stay with the children forever and that is part of what Landscore is all about. A huge thank you goes to Sophie and the PTA for making the visit happen and bringing excitement and inspiration to the school.

Exmoor Challenge

This week our intrepid Exmoor Challenge walkers once again pulled on their walking boots to prepare for their challenge, trekking across Dartmoor and managing to walk almost 16 miles over hills and through rivers. It was brilliant to see their character, determination and teamwork as they completed this together. Well done to all of them.

Waterstones Presents

Waterstones is proud to present award-winning and bestselling author, Jacqueline Wilson at the Corn Exchange, Exeter. Jacqueline will be talking about her career and her new book The Seaside Sleepover, the latest, funny, and heartwarming story from her bestselling Sleepover series.

Jacqueline Wilson said: "I love writing light-hearted fun books occasionally, especially when sisters Daisy and Lily are involved. It was a treat to send them on a seaside holiday, when they have a sleepover with their special friends - and one very unwelcome guest!"

The Book & Ticket bundle includes a pre-signed hardback copy of The Seaside Sleepover (RRP £12.99), whilst stocks last.

Please note that Jacqueline will not be signing books on the day, but there will be an opportunity for children to ask questions.

Please especially note that ticket holders 16 years of age and under must be accompanied by an adult (who must also purchase a ticket) in order to gain entry to the venue and to remain in the venue for the duration of the performance. The venue reserves the right to refuse entry to unaccompanied ticket holders who are 16 years of age and under.

If you have any questions about this event or if you have access requests, please do let us know how we can support your visit by emailing box.office@exeter.gov.uk

Awesome @ Landscore

This week we say congratulations to Florence for the double-whammy of her Kingfisher 1 and her Angelfish 1 awards. She has clearly been working hard and it is brilliant to see her efforts and enthusiasm rewarded. Well done also to Caitlin for earning her STANley 6 award and answering some tricky swimming-safety questions in the process. Finally, well done to Daria as she passes her STANley 7 award. Clearly she has also been working hard and well look forward to seeing her future success. Well done to you all.

From the PTA

Even though it has been a short week, I know the children are all looking forward to a weekend. We can't wait to see you all next week.

Yours sincerely

Headteacher
